

EDUCATION PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS BOARD
EMERGENCY NONCERTIFIED SCHOOL PERSONNEL PROGRAM
16 KAR 2:210

RENEWAL APPLICATION

The Emergency Noncertified School Personnel Program is offered to local school districts with an identified shortage of certified and emergency-certified substitute teachers. This program permits the employment of persons with less than 64 semester hours of college credit during the temporary absence of a teacher-of-record and only after the priority selection process of certified and emergency-certified substitute teachers has been exhausted.

The Education Professional Standards Board administers this program in accordance with the requirements established in administrative regulation 16 KAR 2:210.

Application for district participation in this program shall be on an annual basis for the school year in which approval is requested. A school district approved in the preceding school year for participation in the program may request renewal for continuation of the program via this form.
